Terra's Birthday Party!

Edit

The older I get, the less I feel I need. This year has been so challenging for many in our community so the best way I can think to celebrate my birthday is by raising funds to give back!

If you're interested in celebrating my birthday this year, I hope you consider a gift to Langley Memorial Hospital.

Langley's frontline staff have been working non-stop, putting their own health at risk, to ensure their patients get the best possible care and have the care they need to go home to their families.

In honour of these amazing caregivers, I'm hoping to raise $1,000!
